By Sarah Janelle Loren

And the Freddy Award for Outstanding Overall Production of a Musical goes to... Bangor Area High School! On May 23rd, BAHS won Outstanding Overall Production for the first time ever. Directors Butch DiMinico and Rebecka Kranich, cast, crew, and orchestra walked away from the the 2019 Freddy Awards with a total of eight Freddys for their performance of Mamma Mia!

"This is our first overall win and the response from the community is so fantastic," said BAHS senior Gianna Graziano, who played Tanya in the musical. "The energy and all the support is something we wouldn't trade for the world!"

BAHS was nominated for an incredible 16 Freddy Awards this year, winning the following categories: Outstanding Use of Scenery, Use of Lighting, Chorus, Small Ensemble Performance (Brookel Sabella, Gianna Graziano, Morgan Shriver), Performance by an Actress in a Supporting Role (Gianna Graziano), Performance by an Actress in a Leading Role (Brookel Sabella), Overall Production, and the Vic Kumma Award for Outstanding Solo Vocal Performance (Brookel Sabella).

"It was a night we will never forget, a true honor, and we couldn't be more grateful," Graziano said. "We can't thank the Freddy Awards and our directors, Mr. DiMinico and Mrs. Kranich, enough!"

Congratulations to the BAHS directors, cast, crew, and orchestra on your achievements earned for your exceptional performance of Mamma Mia! Congratulations are also in order for the other area high schools who received Freddy Awards, including Easton, Nazareth Area, Warren Hills Regional (first in 12 years!), and Hackettstown High Schools.

Mom N Pop CBD and Wellness Shop Opening June 1st in Forks Township

By Sarah Janelle Loren

CBD is continuing to gain popularity, and now you can find it in Forks Twp. at Mom N Pop CBD and Wellness Shop. Owner Ray Brown, Jr., of New Jersey, will be celebrating the grand opening at 312 Town Center Blvd. in Easton, PA on Saturday, June 1st, from 9am to 9pm. At Mom N Pop CBD, one will find CBD oil, pain cream, gummies, pet treats, and more. Ray Brown, Jr.'s very own CBD line, Dr Brown's CBD, will also be available at the new store.

"My goal is to take out big pharma," Brown said. "My mom hurt her back in 2004 or 2005 and was on pain meds, opioids, from then until her death on April 19th, 2014. I tried to get her to switch to medical marijuana, then CBD, but she wasn't into it because of the whole stigma about 'weed.'"

CBD is short for cannabidiol, a naturally occurring compound found in cannabis, a plant with a rich medicinal history dating back thousands of years (projectcbd.org). Unlike THC, the other component of cannabis, CBD does not make one intoxicated, as THC and CBD act in different ways.

"CBD helps me in many ways," Brown said.

According to ProjectCBD.gov, CBD may provide relief for chronic pain, anxiety and depression, inflammation, and much more. Extensive scientific research, as well as patient and physician accounts, highlight CBD's potential to treat autoimmune diseases, neurological conditions such as Alzheimer's and Parkinson's, metabolic syndrome, neuropsychiatric illness, gut disorders, cardiovascular dysfunction, and skin disease. In addition, "CBD has proven neuroprotective effects and its anti-cancer properties are being investigated at several research centers in the [US] and elsewhere."

After witnessing his mother's struggle with the effects of addictive pain medications for a decade, Brown began selling CBD products at a farm stand in NJ.

"The proof is in all the people who come back," Brown said. "The stories they tell me are so motivational. I tear up sometimes! They are getting off these pills that are killing them from the inside out."

For more on CBD and the products available for purchase at Mom N Pop CBD and Wellness Shop, visit 4UNMECBD.com or contact Ray Brown, Jr. at 4UNMECBD@gmail.com or 610-297-6939. ADV.
